Rajahmundry, East Godavari District.
2 The General Manager, Andhra Bank (Personnel Dept.,)
Central Office, Sultan Bazaar, Hyderabad.

.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ, order or direction more in the nature of writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in not regularising the services of the petitioner herein as Sub-Staff of Andhra Bank, as highly illegal, arbitrary and violative of Principles of natural justice.

Counsel for the Petitioner:MRS.S.NANDA

Counsel for the Respondents: MR.N.RAMAMOHANA RAO

The Court at the stage of admission made the following O R D E R:

The petitioner is working as a temporary sub-staff, since 1982, in Andhra Bank. He made a representation to the respondents on 20-06-2004, seeking regularization of his services as sub-staff of the Bank.

The grievance of the petitioner is that though several employees of the Bank, belonging to temporary sub-staff, are absorbed into regular service, his case was not considered, therefore, he approached this Court seeking a direction to the respondents to consider his representation, for regularization of his services, and to pass appropriate orders.

Heard both the counsel and perused the material available on record.

As the representation made by the petitioner is pending with the respondents, I deem it appropriate to dispose of the writ petition with a direction to the respondents to consider the representation of the petitioner, dated 20-06-2004, and pass appropriate orders, in terms of the settlement between the Bank and the employees' association dated 09-01-1995, within a period of two months from the date of this order.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
